High-altitude clothing and footwear

- High-altitude boots compatible with crampons
- Base layers, insulating layers and high-altitude down clothing
- Waterproof shell jacket and trousers
- Thin gloves with warm mittens to go over them
- Hat, balaclava or other face protection
- High-altitude category sunglasses, plus spare glasses or goggles

Camp and movement

- Sleeping bag in the right temperature range
- Rucksack and duffel bag within the agreed carrying limits
- Crampons, ice axe, helmet and harness, as listed by your guide
- Trekking poles and a head torch with spare batteries
- Vacuum flask, your own water containers and dry bags
- Power bank and your own toiletries

Check the full equipment list for Aconcagua. Hire, portering and the supply of individual items are set out in your own specification.