Personal clothing and protection

- Broken-in high-altitude or mountaineering boots
- Base layers, insulating layers and warm down clothing
- Membrane clothing to protect against wind and snow
- Warm gloves, spare mittens and face protection
- High-altitude sunglasses and a spare pair of goggles

Technical and camp equipment

- Helmet, harness and crampons compatible with your boots
- Ice axe and belay items, following your guide's current list
- Sleeping bag, rucksack, trekking poles and head torch
- Vacuum flask, water containers and a way of keeping dust off your kit
- Power bank, spare batteries and your own toiletries

Use the full equipment list for Ojos del Salado. Every item supplied or hired is listed individually in the quote.